

Community Mixer Report

The ALADI Community Mixer is built around two of ALADI's pillars: Collaborative Spaces; where individuals can connect, exchange ideas, and foster relationships; and Knowledge Harvesting and Sharing; where we provide a solid knowledge base from which to drive influence, amplify voices, and operate collaborative spaces effectively. This first edition of the community mixer was held at the ALADI offices in Nairobi, Kenya and brought together 25 young leaders and mentors within the ALADI network.

RATIONALE & OBJECTIVES

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Transcending Boundaries Podcast Screening

Participants watched a 24-minute summary version of the first episode, Reeta Roy interviewing former President of Liberia, H.E. Ellen Johnson Sirleaf.

Campfire Session

Through a guided questions approach, participants unpacked the episode to highlight various themes of transformational leadership, community, resilience, and African culture that resonated with them. Some examples of these themes were:

